DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 5-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 103 as being unpatentable over JP 62047839.

JP 62047839 (abstract) discloses the features including the claimed composition. The claimed final plated layer can be in any shape and/or structure, which reads on the product of cited reference. The claimed melting point is material property, which would have been inherently possessed by the material of cited references. The claimed atoms per cubic meter is proportional to mass of each elemental element. Therefore, when the claimed composition of each element is overlapped by cited reference, the claimed atoms per cubic meter for each element in the claimed composition would also be overlapped. When prior art compounds essentially "bracketing" the claimed compounds in structural similarity are all known, one of ordinary skill in the art would clearly be motivated to make those claimed compounds in searching for new products in the expectation that compounds similar in structure will have similar properties. In re Gyurik, 596 F.2d 1012, 1018, 201 USPQ 552, 557 (CCPA 1979); See In re May, 574 F.2d 1082, 1094, 197 USPQ 601, 611 (CCPA 1978) and In re Hoch, 57 CCPA 1292, 1296, 428 F.2d 1341, 1344, 166 USPQ 406, 409 (1970). Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to select any portion of range, including the claimed range, from the broader range disclosed in a prior art reference because the prior art reference finds that the prior art composition in the entire disclosed range has a suitable utility. Also see MPEP § 2131.03 and § 2123.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed August 5, 2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Finkl reference has been withdrawn in view of instant remarks.

Applicant's argument in paragraph bridging pages 2-3 of instant remarks is noted. But, the claimed plated layer reads on the product of JP 62047839.

Applicant argue that the product of JP 62047839 requires Se and Te. But, the instant transitional expression "comprising" in claim 5, does not exclude said elements or any unrecited elements even in major amounts. See Ex parte Davis et al. (POBA 1948) 80 USPQ 448 and In re Bertsch 132 F2d 1014, 56 USPQ 379 (CCPA 1942).

Applicant argues that the claimed composition is not disclosed by cited reference. But, applicant's attention is directed to abstract of cited JP 62047839 which discloses the claimed elements and amounts.

Applicant argues that the JP 62047839 teaches away for low melting point. But, first, applicant has not shown the claimed elements and their contents are critical for desired melting point. Second, applicant fails to show the melting point of product from cited reference is outside the claimed range. Third, instant independent claim 5 does not recite any melting temperature.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

Art Unit: 1742

Applicant is reminded that when amendment and/or revision is required, applicant should therefore specifically point out the support for any amendments made to the disclosure. See 37 C.F.R. § 1.121.
